

INTRODUCTION

- * Currently in our study of the Word of God, we are coming to the conclusion of the reign of David - the man after God's own heart.
- * As we have examined his life, we have seen the transition that has taken place from the poetic, courageous shepherd (who slew Goliath and was anointed to be king while still a youth) to the passive, condemnable leader (who became guilty of adultery, murder, and injustice).
- * Over the next three Sundays, we will consider the final activities of the life of David.
- * Today, as we consider the Coronation of Solomon, we see that the consequences of David's sinful decisions follow him all the way to the end of his life.
