

INTRODUCTION

- * Currently in our study of the Word of God, we are coming to the conclusion of the reign of David - the man after God's own heart.
- * Last week, we considered the Coronation of Solomon as the next king. During that examination, we saw that David was very old and confined, for the most part, to his bed chamber.
- * Today, we continue to look at the final acts of David as the king over Israel. In 1 Chronicles 22-29 we see part of David's planning for Israel's future and, specifically, for the building of the "House of God" ... the temple.
- * It had been David's desire to build the temple but YHWH had specifically told him that he was not to be the one to build it. Rather, David's son - Solomon - would be the one to build it (cf. 2 Sam 7:8-16; 1 Chron 17:4-15; 22:7-11).
- * Lord willing, we will consider David's final charge to Solomon next week as our last consideration of the life of David.
